

The bible says God sent His only son Jesus into the world that all men might have victory over death and the devil. Jesus was God's unblemished sacrificial lamb, He was sent by God at an appointed time to shed His redeeming blood, dying for all of our sins past, present and future. When Jesus rose again from the dead there was a way opened to escape the pit of hell and go to heaven. This crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus shows by example that death has no sting for those people who believe and put their trust in Jesus and God's Word, the Holy Bible.

The resurrection of Jesus cheated Satan out of claiming our souls and going to exist in hell forever. The bible exhorts us to believe on the death and resurrection of Jesus, repent,.. meaning turn from your self-determination and let The Holy Spirit be your loving guide (Let God's will be your will).

The bible says it all in John 3:16 ...” For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” AKJV

Note; No other major religion has ever claimed their leader could do miracles and overcome death with eye witness testimonies to back it up, not Buddhism, not Islam, nor Hinduism or any other.....

Only Christianity makes this claim. “God Bless.”
Check us out at... www.freechristiantracts.info

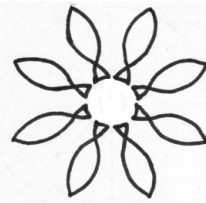

The bible says God sent His only son Jesus into the world that all men might have victory over death and the devil. Jesus was God's unblemished sacrificial lamb, He was sent by God at an appointed time to shed His redeeming blood, dying for all of our sins past, present and future. When Jesus rose again from the dead there was a way opened to escape the pit of hell and go to heaven. This crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus shows by example that death has no sting for those people who believe and put their trust in Jesus and God's Word, the Holy Bible.

The resurrection of Jesus cheated Satan out of claiming our souls and going to exist in hell forever. The bible exhorts us to believe on the death and resurrection of Jesus, repent,.. meaning turn from your self-determination and let The Holy Spirit be your loving guide (Let God's will be your will).

The bible says it all in John 3:16 ...” For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” AKJV

Note; No other major religion has ever claimed their leader could do miracles and overcome death with eye witness testimonies to back it up, not Buddhism, not Islam, nor Hinduism or any other.....

Only Christianity makes this claim. “God Bless.”
Check us out at... www.freechristiantracts.info

Was JESUS a FAKE ?

.... or is He

Our only REDEEMER

It was once said " If Jesus Christ is whom He claims to be, not one of us can afford to ignore His claims or refuse to judge the evidence."

So with this in mind we should see if the testimony of the Bible in relation to Jesus would stand in a court of law today.

The most compelling evidence throughout the New Testament of the Bible for Jesus being a supernatural being is linked to the Pharisees and Sadducees . These were two sects of educated authoritative religious men meshed into the priesthood and law of Israel at the time of Jesus. They were authoritative over the Jewish populace but still subordinate to the occupying Roman governance. According to the bible these priests and their fellow scribes were jealous of Jesus, his teachings and miracles, resenting and despising his existence. He was also a threat to their authority. (They eventually had him executed). But the most interesting thing it seems is that they never called Jesus a FAKE in relation to his miracles.

Was JESUS a FAKE ?

.... or is He

Our only REDEEMER

It was once said " If Jesus Christ is whom He claims to be, not one of us can afford to ignore His claims or refuse to judge the evidence."

So with this in mind we should see if the testimony of the Bible in relation to Jesus would stand in a court of law today.

The most compelling evidence throughout the New Testament of the Bible for Jesus being a supernatural being is linked to the Pharisees and Sadducees . These were two sects of educated authoritative religious men meshed into the priesthood and law of Israel at the time of Jesus. They were authoritative over the Jewish populace but still subordinate to the occupying Roman governance. According to the bible these priests and their fellow scribes were jealous of Jesus, his teachings and miracles, resenting and despising his existence. He was also a threat to their authority. (They eventually had him executed). But the most interesting thing it seems is that they never called Jesus a FAKE in relation to his miracles.

The point is that these enemies of Jesus were also eye witnesses to some of His miracles. There doesn't seem to be any mention of denial of the supernatural powers of Jesus by either priests, scribes or any other contemporaries. For them to deny His miracles at that time would have bought condemnation on themselves by the multitudes that were eye witnesses and partakers in some of those supernatural feats. For example, the participants in the feeding of the five thousand people with five loaves of bread and two fish, (Matt 14: 15 - 21). ... No scribe of the day seemed able to testify contrary to these eye witness testimonies of Christ's miracles. This is compelling evidence that eye witness accounts were accepted without doubt. Remember that even the Pharisees and Sadducees who had power and hated Jesus couldn't seem to make any false accusations regarding miracles and they were desperate to discredit or frame him. There was too much first hand evidence in favor of Jesus, thus it had to be after the fact.

It is also noteworthy that some of the seemingly cynical hard-nosed Roman occupiers of Israel believed in the powers of Jesus as well. For example, the Roman centurion who called for Jesus to heal his servant (Matt 8: 5 - 13). This was an act of faith by the centurion, he would have heard about

The point is that these enemies of Jesus were also eye witnesses to some of His miracles. There doesn't seem to be any mention of denial of the supernatural powers of Jesus by either priests, scribes or any other contemporaries. For them to deny His miracles at that time would have bought condemnation on themselves by the multitudes that were eye witnesses and partakers in some of those supernatural feats. For example, the participants in the feeding of the five thousand people with five loaves of bread and two fish, (Matt 14: 15 - 21). ... No scribe of the day seemed able to testify contrary to these eye witness testimonies of Christ's miracles. This is compelling evidence that eye witness accounts were accepted without doubt. Remember that even the Pharisees and Sadducees who had power and hated Jesus couldn't seem to make any false accusations regarding miracles and they were desperate to discredit or frame him. There was too much first hand evidence in favor of Jesus, thus it had to be after the fact.

It is also noteworthy that some of the seemingly cynical hard-nosed Roman occupiers of Israel believed in the powers of Jesus as well. For example, the Roman centurion who called for Jesus to heal his servant (Matt 8: 5 - 13). This was an act of faith by the centurion, he would have heard about the miracles of Jesus and his claim to be the Son of God. The bible says he felt unworthy about having Jesus come under his roof so there must also have been conviction in his heart, and he must have been convinced this Jesus was no ordinary man.

Another compelling point is that there were many eye witness accounts according to the bible of people seeing the resurrected Jesus after his cruel crucifixion. For example, Paul's commentary in 1 Corinthians 15: 3 - 6 speaks of about 500 eye witnesses at one instance seeing Jesus after being resurrected from the dead.

After the body of Jesus was laid in a tomb and then sealed the Chief priests and Pharisees persuaded the Romans to put guards in front of the tomb to make sure that the prophecy that Jesus spoke (Matt 27: 63... "After three days I will rise again") would not seem to be fulfilled. They were very worried about Jesus coming back to life. However when some of the friends of Jesus came to the tomb three days later they found His body had vanished. He had gone as foretold. After the Chief priests and Elders learned of this they paid a large sum of money to spread rumors that the followers of Jesus had stolen His body from the tomb, in fact a fabricated story to counter the resurrection event. (Matt 28: 11-15).

the miracles of Jesus and his claim to be the Son of God. The bible says he felt unworthy about having Jesus come under his roof so there must also have been conviction in his heart, and he must have been convinced this Jesus was no ordinary man.

Another compelling point is that there were many eye witness accounts according to the bible of people seeing the resurrected Jesus after his cruel crucifixion. For example, Paul's commentary in 1 Corinthians 15: 3 - 6 speaks of about 500 eye witnesses at one instance seeing Jesus after being resurrected from the dead.

After the body of Jesus was laid in a tomb and then sealed the Chief priests and Pharisees persuaded the Romans to put guards in front of the tomb to make sure that the prophecy that Jesus spoke (Matt 27: 63... "After three days I will rise again") would not seem to be fulfilled. They were very worried about Jesus coming back to life. However when some of the friends of Jesus came to the tomb three days later they found His body had vanished. He had gone as foretold. After the Chief priests and Elders learned of this they paid a large sum of money to spread rumors that the followers of Jesus had stolen His body from the tomb, in fact a fabricated story to counter the resurrection event. (Matt 28: 11-15).